Making Links Scholarship

Applications are now open!

Making Links Scholarship programme is designed to help talented European university law students from underrepresented backgrounds succeed in their early careers by developing technical and professional skills whilst building up strong commercial fluency and a global outlook.

As part of the programme, the scholars will participate in an all-expenses covered kick-off event at Linklaters' Madrid office and will join us at an internship in their closest Linklaters local office. They will also receive a 5,000 EUR scholarship.

The programme will be offered in our European offices in:

Amsterdam, Brussels, Germany, Lisbon, Luxembourg, Madrid, Milan, Paris and Stockholm.

Its content will be delivered in English.
